A story about a once prominent actor who spends the last days of his life in a rundown retirement home. A surprise visit from his son unravels a series of events that will change their perspective on life, death and family.

“After launching VICE MEDIA in Mexico and working as a partner and General Manager for over 8 years, I decided to change paths in my life and do what I am most passionate about: FILM.
El Tiempo Pasa (As Time Goes By) is a short film I have written and directed with the help of my most talented friends and a new generation of Mexican filmmakers” *Eduardo Valenzuela -Director

DIRECTOR: EDUARDO VALENZUELA (Mexico, 1980)

Florida State University graduate.

Founder & General Manager of VICE MEDIA in Mexico.

Executive Producer for television series such as The Vice Guide to Latin America for Discovery Channel and The Release, a music show for Sony Television.

He has also been the Executive Producer of the highly praised online series La Guía VICE a las Elecciones documenting one of Mexico's most controversial elections, Miscelánea Mexicana, a series about the most eccentric subcultures in Mexico and ¡Pelotas!, a soccer series focused on the social, cultural and political aspects of soccer in the region. He also created Advice Network, one of the biggest digital networks in Latin America.

In 2016, Eduardo started his very own film production company, Union Cinematográfica.

Recently, he directed his first short film "El Tiempo Pasa".
