Olena is an immigrant and single mother confronting the reality of a commitment she made to her dying home patient in this portrait of unspoken devotion.

Bios:

Samantha Drake Samantha Drake is a filmmaker and visual artist based in Cincinnati, OH. She was recently granted an artist residency at the Wexner Center for the Arts and was a recipient of the Levin Family Foundation grant for first-time filmmakers. In addition to short and feature film work, she was also a mentor for Pens to Pictures -- an organization working to share the voices of incarcerated women through film.

Brad Wickham: Born and raised in Dayton, OH, Brad graduated from Wright State University with a BFA in Motion Picture Production. During his time at Wright State, Brad shot both documentary and fiction shorts, on 16mm negative to 4K. Brad lives and works in New York, NY.

Glenna Brucken is a New York based actor. Originally from Dayton, Ohio, Glenna has also lived and worked as an actor in Chicago, and most recently was a proud member of the Acting Apprentice Company at Actors Theatre of Louisville. Oasis is among her favorite film projects, alongside Physical Therapy, the 2nd place winner in Ohio University's 48 Hour Shootout 2011.
