

Vroom-Vroom!

A short film written & directed by
TESS SWEET

LOGLINE
After getting dumped by her boyfriend and stranded in the desert, a heartbroken woman meets an unlikely trucker with a tool box full of miracles and an invitation to a magical place.

SYNOPSIS
Hungry for love, misfit Zoe, hits rock bottom when her boyfriend dumps her before their long-awaited cross-country motorcycle adventure. With nothing left to lose, she loads her gear into her car and takes off on her own. When her radiator bursts in the middle of the desert, clueless Zoe is captivated by Lola, the zany head of the International School for Bad Ass Bitches, where learning the lessons of crime-fighting is a labor of love. Zoe must decide if she's been captured or rescued by Lola and ultimately how to rescue herself.

DIRECTOR BIO: TESS SWEET

Tess on set!

Tess Sweet received her Bachelor's degree in film at San Francisco State University in 2006 and is currently pursuing an MFA in directing at UCLA. In 2005, her comedic sex education cable access television show, Sexpro, won the Western Region Cable Alliance's WAVE award for excellence.

As a storyteller, Tess lives in the world of dark comedy. She enjoys writing female-centric stories, creating super powered heroines, and objectifying men with a smile.

VROOM-VROOM! is Tess Sweet's first film.

VROOM-VROOM! is a comedy about learning to ride solo. It's about a young woman recovering from heartbreak by way of an amazing desert road trip adventure. At a fork in the road she must choose - the easy way out or the glittering unknown. Inspired by an unlikely angel, she chooses to walk into the mystery. And as a result, her life will never be the same !!!

the CAST...

Zoe

Meet Joy Gohring! Joy tours stand-up all over the U.S., Canada & U.K. and currently performs in the Wayne Brady Show Live in Las Vegas. With numerous TV & film appearances, Joy is best known for playing the lead role in "Good Girls Don't" on Oxygen.

Lola

Introducing Karen Michelle Powell... actress, mystic, writer, wife, and mother of 3. New to acting, VROOM-VROOM! is Karen's break out performance.

Sean

You might remember Dane Hanson from a kinda famous T-Mobile commercial, if you didn't fast forward through it with your Tivo. "Hoops or Dangly?" He was the boyfriend. In his free time, none, Dane volunteers at the Children's Hospital (really) and designs sportswear for his clothing line, "Heroes & Hooligans" (Really).

Novah

Remember the hottest girl fight ever in Kill Bill 2? That was Monica Staggs. In 2005, she won the Taurus World Stunt Award for "Best Fight" for the bloody trailer battle with Zoe Bell. Actress and stunt woman, Monica is the gatekeeper of the International School for Badass Bitches.