Whether you're an actor or a filmmaker, meeting like-minded artists can be a crucial step towards defining your career. Are you looking for a way to create more work, make friends in the industry, and expand your professional contacts? From small-scale screenings to international social networks, here are 11 great places to mingle with the next generation of filmmakers.

NewFilmmakers LA (Los Angeles)

Want to familiarize yourself with the emerging film market? This Los Angeles-based non-profit brings filmmakers and audiences together for monthly screenings, discussions, and more. Cinephiles can watch international films followed by director Q&As and after-parties, mixing and mingling with like-minded artists from all over Los Angeles and the world. Head to the AT&T Center on March 7 for this month's event, "Spotlight on Female-Identified Directors and Female-Driven Stories."
