

Philharmonic

Press Kit

After forty years' devotion to music, the conductor of a world-renowned orchestra, struggles to decide whether to start his farewell concert.

Philharmonic is Weijie Sun's directing debut. It had its Premiere as part of LA International Short Fest.

Director: Jay Swuen (孫偉傑), a current student at California State university, Northridge. Los Angeles & Beijing based Director, and Cinematographer. He was recently granted a fellowship with Arri and Zeiss company as a cinematographer. Weijie Sun has worked in many different environments and cities both in US and China, with over seven years of experience in Multimedia Industry and three years in film industry. Utilizing his binary culture background, Jay Swuen has worked with a lot of award-winning crews and has been actively involved in various US/CHINESE films and TV shows, with distinct styles including drama, comedy, sci-fi, VR 360, thriller, reality show, commercials, etc.

Thursday, December 6, 2018