

SYNOPSIS

Have you ever wanted to get off work, drive up to the mountains, and just chill? But then something gets in your way...and well...things get a bit out of hand? A just off duty lifeguard wants to do just that but her plans go sideways when the local Sheriff questions her about a package in her car.

“What’s In The Box?” was the 2018 winning film from San Diego during the 2018 48 Hour Film Project.

The filmmakers are very proud to present the film in its original edit as completed in 48 hours time.
