A SHORT FILM BY KATE ROMERO

LOG LINE

A TIME TRAVEL DRAMA ABOUT ONE WOMAN FORCED TO CONFRONT HER DIFFERENT SELVES OVER TIME.

SYNOPSIS

A STRUGGLE FOR CONTROL ENSUES WHEN THE WOMAN'S 16-YEAR-OLD SELF REBELS AGAINST THE RULES THE WOMAN HAS FOLLOWED HER ENTIRE LIFE.

STARRING

VALERIE HURT

is an actor and writer from Los Angeles. She has produced many plays as well as multiple successful web series for Universal and NBC. She has acted in television and film, including Ray Donovan, Major Crimes, Parts Per Billion, and the AFI Audience Award winning, A Necessary Death. She has two young children and enjoys spending “me” time sitting alone in the car with chocolate.

AVA BELLOWS

is an actor from Los Angeles, raised by and amongst actors. She recently wrapped Love In The Time of Corona, a 4-part series for Freeform that will air in August... and is the first show shot in Los Angeles during the pandemic. She has starred in several short films, including: This Too Shall Pass, Chronology and Self Tape for Sadie Katz, which she wrote, directed and edited.

LUIS VEGA

is a NYC based actor whose screen credits include Madam Secretary and the feature films Another Earth (Official Sundance Selection) and Chinese Puzzle. He has appeared on stage at The Atlantic Theater (opposite OITNB’s Dascha Polanco and Selenis Leyva), Second Stage, Williamstown Theater Festival, and in the national tour of The Humans (opposite Richard Thomas). He is a graduate of the MFA Acting program at UCSD.

CREATIVE TEAM

is an award-winning Latinx photographer, director and creative producer from Los Angeles. Romero's fascination with people has guided her from the still image to filmmaking. She co-produced the critically acclaimed feature film, G.B.F., which premiered at the Tribeca Film Festival in 2013. Kate is now making her scripted directorial debut with Chronology. She plans to continue telling stories from a woman's perspective, always showcasing Latinx characters in positive roles.

WRITER VALERIE HURT

is an actor and writer from Los Angeles. She has produced many plays as well as multiple successful web series for Universal and NBC. She has acted in television and film, including Ray Donovan, Major Crimes, Parts Per Billion, and the AFI Audience Award winning, A Necessary Death. She has two young children and enjoys spending "me" time sitting alone in the car with chocolate.

PRODUCER DONALD REYNOLDS

a filmmaker with over 20 years experience as a department head on films shot all over the world. Donald's experience working on films like Collateral, Memoirs of a Geisha, Miami Vice, Avatar, and many others, have cultivated his ability to know what is needed, both physically and creatively, to tell a story. He has now produced several short films and is always looking for more stories to tell, with compelling characters, doing interesting things. He believes that the setting could be a distant planet or a dinner table. It is the characters who engage us and tell the story.
