DANIEL STONE, A BLACK THERAPIST, ATTEMPTS TO HELP OTHERS HEAL, WHILE HIS OWN LIFE FALLS APART.

WHO CARES FOR THE CARETAKERS?

TRUE STORY

GOD TELLS BAD JOKES

THE WHY

It was 3AM a few years ago.

I got a call in the middle of the night from my homie who was having an emotional breakdown. He said:

“niggas need therapy too.”

I agreed.

This is a series about a man who attempts to care for others, while struggling to be able to care for himself.

He's trapped in a black and white world, but as each episode passes. A new color comes into view. The tone shifts to more comedic and lighthearted and loving.

His healing, and the healing all in his life becomes not just possible, but necessary.

Just as it is for the rest of us.
