We're hosting our August Monthly Film Festival dedicated to our annual InFocus: International Animation program!

NewFilmMakers Los Angeles (NFMLA)'s August line-up celebrates emerging filmmakers both near and far, featuring InFocus: International Animation, a program of exciting animated work from all around the world, a selection of California-made short films, including work from the Youth Cinema Project (@youthcinemaproject_), and a collection of work made in the city of Los Angeles.

For more information and to purchase tickets, visit the link in our bio or www.NFMLA.org/events.

NFMLA Monthly Film Festival - InFocus: International Animation

NewFilmMakers Los Angeles (NFMLA)'s monthly film festival returns on Saturday, Aug. 26, from 2:30 - 10:15 p.m. at South Park Center in downtown L.A. The August line-up celebrates emerging filmmakers from around the world. The first program features a number of short films made in California; the second block focuses on films from the city of L.A. and the third program showcases international animation. The day also includes drinks and mixers, filmmaker Q&As and networking. Tickets: \$10 - \$30.
