LOGLINE

A queer abstract poetic piece that focuses on rebirth from heartbreak.

SYNOPSIS

Based on an audio note where writer-director, Steph Zenee Perez, was speaking on a recent heartbreak.

She took the audio message and wrote a simple script based upon the words.

ELSEWHERE LOVE bloomed into an abstract poetic piece that focuses on rebirth from heartbreak and features surreal textured memories as if playing an old film in the back of your head.

DIRECTOR/WRITER/PRODUCER

Stephanie Zenee Perez is a Los Angeles based editor-turned-writer-director. As a queer first-generation Mexican-American, she passionately crafts narratives that explore the complexities of the human experience, celebrate diverse cultures, and spotlight underrepresented communities. With extensive editing experience, she's contributed to large scale TV series and films, as well as indie features like "THE FEELS" and the documentary "BORN FREE." Her directorial debut, "ELSEWHERE LOVE," premiered at the GuadaLajara Film Festival and continues to captivate audiences on the festival circuit. Holding an MFA from AFI and a BFA from UNLV, Stephanie is dedicated to authentic storytelling and amplifying unheard voices in the cinematic landscape.

The background of the entire image is an aerial, high-angle shot of a beach. The top half shows the wet sand with intricate patterns of water and foam. The bottom half shows the ocean with white-capped waves breaking onto the shore. The overall color palette is dominated by various shades of blue and white.
