SYNOPSIS

In Italy, where the conservative government seeks to imprison all transgender individuals as a threat to traditional family values, Lea (45), a transgender woman held in isolation in a remote mountain prison, falls into a deep depression.

As imaginary scenarios shape in her mind, the country erupts into social conflict and Lea will have the opportunity, mixing reality and imagination, to find a role that restores her will to live and fight for her freedom, and for the freedom of all transgender people.

DIRECTOR

Antonio De Palo was born in Molfetta in Puglia. After graduating in Communication Sciences at the University of Bari, he graduated in film directing at the Rosebud European Academy of Cinema and Television in Rome. In 2019 he's among the 10 talents selected for the second edition of the Media Talents on Tour organized by Europa Creativa MEDIA.

His research involves the creation of four short films in which he dedicates himself to a personal experimentation on aesthetics. The short film "The Abjurants" won two Nastri d'Argento for the best leading actresses of the 2020 Corti d'Argento edition. All his works has been interpreted by prestigious actors and actresses such as: Valeria Solarino, Giorgio Colangeli, Michele Venitucci, Lidia Vitale, Valentina Carnelutti, Lino Guanciale, Claudia Potenza, Maria Di Biase and Vittoria Schisano.
